Mike Emery Announces Campaign For Fayetteville City Council

Fayetteville, Arkansas - The residents of Fayetteville's Ward 4, will have another option when they go to the polls in November. Mike Emery has announced his candidacy for Fayetteville alderman, Ward 4, position 2.

Emery, who currently works as a newscast director at local television stations KNWA and Fox 24, is a decorated veteran of the United States Air Force. He attended the University of Oklahoma after completing a decade of military service that included deployment to Desert Storm and Bosnia support operations. He is a member of the American Legion and the Patriot Guard.

"I have been fortunate enough to have traveled across this country and several foreign countries. I have seen first hand how privileged we are to live in a city like Fayetteville. It's my desire to see Fayetteville move forward while keeping the charm and uniqueness we have here. There is so much potential here. Just like any other city, there are problems and issues, and I firmly believe that with logical cooperation, we can overcome all of them."

"The prosperity, welfare, and happiness of the citizens of Fayetteville will be a priority for me. Safe neighborhoods, community involvement, and green initiatives are key. I look forward to serving the needs of Fayetteville's 4th Ward."
