

Literacy in the Ozarks Scavenger Hunt Clues

1. Do you remember our first tutor trainer, Jamil Mohad Shami? Find and take a picture of his name on the senior walk at U of A. (Reminder/Hint: He began studying around 1964).
2. We are proudly supported by the Barbara Broyles Endowment which was set up and celebrated in 2004. Find and take a picture outside of the bank the celebration was held in. You may have to investigate our social media feeds to find the answer.
3. Find and take a picture with one of our old buildings/sites. Document how the buildings/sites changed and what occupies them now. We have had locations at: 3703 N. College, No. 6, 1774 N College Ave, and 3042-B Market Ave
4. We participated in many NALA meetings held at this popular Fayetteville destination known for its fabulous views. Go up there and take a picture capturing this beautiful site.
5. Look through our scrapbook series and recreate one of our #OLChistory moments! Be sure to let us know which pic you are recreating. We have some fun ones!!
6. Did you know we made a cookbook a couple of years ago featuring food from our students' homelands? Make a delicious non-American dish or meal (be sure to include a recipe so others can enjoy it later too). Share the meal (and recipe) on Instagram for bonus points. Please include the tag: #OLClithunt and tag our account @ozarkliteracy to ensure that we see it!
7. Create a music video for our song (debuted on May 5th) or a cover of it. (Do both for double points).
8. Once a month, we take our students on a field trip to Crystal Bridges. We haven't been able to do that since the quarantine began, but there are still activities to do to stay connected to art. Go to <https://crystalbridges.org/education-3/#learn> and pick one of their "Art Activities at Home" to do. Show us the results! Bonus: Post the results on Instagram. Your team will receive a bonus point for every teammate who completes the activity (up to 5). Please include the tag: #OLClithunt and tag our account @ozarkliteracy to ensure that we see it!
9. We can't see you at OLC right now, but you can stop by and draw/paint/(creatively represent) our home! If you run into anyone else doing the same, stay at least a parking spot away, but make sure they are doing well (bonus points for a socially distant group selfie)!
10. Find a little free library in Fayetteville and take a selfie of it (Bonus points for featuring the least photographed little library in the hunt).
