Resolution for Mayor Jordan and the City Council to recognize the University of Arkansas Athletic Department and proclaim August 16th as Razorback Athletics Day in the City of Fayetteville

The University of Arkansas' remarkable athletics success continues to garner national recognition. The Razorbacks ranked first in the Southeastern Conference and fifth nationally in the recently released CBS Sports' Best in College Sports Rankings.

Arkansas was the top performing athletics program in the SEC and one of three conference programs in the top 10 of the rankings. Razorback athletics has contributed to the quality of life for Fayetteville economically and entertainment annually. This Resolution for the City of Fayetteville to recognize the University of Arkansas Athletic Department as a contributing partner and helps make Fayetteville one of the best places to live and perhaps declare August 16th

Razorback Athletics Day in Fayetteville.

Best Regards,
